Note room change!

One minor change for the Bismarck hearing is the room location. This hearing will now take place in the Harvest Room. The public must use the South (tunnel) entrance to enter the Capitol building. Metal detectors are present at this entrance and are staffed by Capitol security. Please plan ahead and allow ample time for parking and passing through security. You can view a map of the Capitol grounds, which identifies buildings and parking lots by clicking here.

A map of the south (public) entrance and the Harvest Room is provided below.
